CONSULTATION FOR CANDIDATES FOR The 4th EDITION OF PhD (DOCTORAL) STUDIES

AT THE FCUM

– enrolment 2014

Candidates for PhD studies at the FCUM are invited to a consultation meeting on Saturday 17.05., Room 303, 11.00-14.00.

We will begin at 11.00 with a part for all specialties (Composition and Theory of Music, Conducting – defended at Department 1 and Conducting – defended at Department 5, Instrumental Studies, Vocal Studies). Topics to be discussed will be the enrolment process and requirements. After that we will discuss the changes in the organization resulting from the FCUM’s Senate resolution of 28.04.2014.

Next, the Council for PhD Studies, consisting of representatives of each FCUM Department entitled to carry out post-doctoral degree registration and conferment procedures (i.e., Department 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5), and Head of PhD Studies will answer candidates’ questions concerning enrolment details.

The second part of the meeting will consist of consultations (group or individual) as to factual requirements for doctorates (work, description) and their course of action at each department. Consultations will be given by members of the Council for PhD Studies and possible persons invited by them.

Candidates for such consultations are asked to apply by email (agronau@wp.pl) before 13 May: information should be provided according to the following pattern:

Name, surname, parent university; specialty – with specified instrument in case of instrumentalists, and – in case of conductors – the name of Department where doctorate will be defended.

The Council for PhD Studies at the FCUM consists of:

1. Head of PhD Studies – Alicja Gronau-Osińska, PhD, Professor at the FCUM
2. Representative of Department 1 – Andrzej Miśkiewicz, PhD, Professor at the FCUM
3. Representative of Department 2 – Anna Jastrzębska-Quinn, Professor at the FCUM
4. Representative of Department 3 – Klaudiusz Baran, Professor at the FCUM
5. Representative of Department 4 – Mikołaj Moroz, PhD, Professor at the FCUM
6. Representative of Department 5 – Professor Ewa Marchwicka